We started a new decade
So much life has happened
And will happen
So we gotta learn how to take the no back
Take the power back
Learn how to say no

Not today, not today
You won't get me, uh
Not today, not today
You won't get me, uh

Not today, not today
You won't get me, uh
Not today, not today
You won't get me, uh

How do you live when your child dies?
You feel their breath as they fold into goodbye.
What about when your body cells can't reply?
Or when your job throws you overboard
Thinking he'll survive
Fabricated in a poor man's environment
My mental capacity is something of a conglomerate
Vision past the horizon in front of me
I ditch the script pushing passion like a drug in me
It's showtime like I'm Lebron champion the Lakers
I look you in your eyes and see you faker
I knew I'd never get it like my twin or kin
I rebuilt my life from loss
Yet they don't expect me to win
My success can't be compared to yours
I know I ain't God but my gifts elevate me off the floor
I carry my pain and support you through yours
But in these moments I'm taken for granted
Only one way out this darkness is to love me
And let No be the destiny standard

I'm Offset with no Migos
Upset the game with free throws
Last action hero
Faith forward with no ego, okay, okay, okay
See my future through the peephole
Fusing genres like I'm creole
Money only talks to zeros
One love will heal ya mental, eh, eh, eh
Try life without the handles
At God's speed, time may feel slow
No minutes on clock is real growth
Belief is more than wearing church clothes
So you telling em' this

(No no no - Not today, not today no)
(No no no - Not today, not today no)
(No no no - Not today, not today no)
(No no no - Not today, not today no, whooh)

Not today, not today
You won't get me, uh
Not today, not today
You won't get me, uh
All this power in me jumpin' off da meter
Speaking healing in one name, Jesus

Not today, not today
You won't get me, uh
Not today, not today
You won't get me, uh
Got me focused in my soul I'm freer
Pain in my purpose it's all for a reason

Pain pop up like a cop
Stress stops you at a drop
Grief smelling like dirty socks
Wanna drop the dream like a FedEx box
I'm saying

(No no no - Not today, not today no)

(No no no - Not today, not today no)
(No no no - Not today, not today no)
(No no no - Not today, not today no, whooh)

Not today, not today
You won't get me, uh
Not today, not today
You won't get me, uh
All this power in me jumpin' off da meter
Speaking healing in one name, Jesus

Not today, not today
You won't get me, uh
Not today, not today
You won't get me, uh
Got me focused in my soul I'm freer
Pain in my purpose it's all for a reason

Guilt got me tip toping
Ballerina point toes
Fake folks sit close
Don't kill my vibe dead rose
Throwing in my towel
Sweat dripping on my nose
The devil's heat boiling
But I'm nowhere near his stove
The weight won't leave me alone, uh
I need to catch a win if it's thrown, uh
Flood blessings right in my zone, uh
Gotta live my way up to the throne, uh ,uh, uh

I'm saying no to the pain
I'm saying no to the bad health
Unhealthy relationships, draining people
The negativity - no bad vibes, man

Not today, not today
You won't get me, uh
Not today, not today
You won't get me, uh
All this power in me jumpin' off da meter

Speaking healing in one name, Jesus

Not today, not today

You won't get me, uh

Not today, not today

You won't get me, uh

Got me focused in my soul I'm freer

Pain in my purpose it's all for a reason
